As idyllic and picturesque as its rural surroundings yet a short drive from bustling Wadebridge and the rugged North Cornish coast, Brooklands is a fine stone built detached period home which exhibits a wealth of originality, charm and tradition.

On the market for the first time in over 30 years, Brooklands is situated in the hamlet of Tregawne near Withiel, a truly tranquil locale with the property set amongst 0.45 acres of beautiful gardens and grounds. With just a few nearby neighbours, the property is surrounded by forestry and countryside in all its rural splendour, designated an Area of Great Landscape Value.

Noteworthy features include beamed ceilings, thick stone walls, window seats, timber sliding sash windows, an Aga and working fireplace.

As the accompanying floorplans illustrate, Brooklands offers almost 1,700 square feet of accommodation. The four bedrooms to the first floor include three doubles all with a delightful front aspect and two with built in wardrobes. The property has a first floor bathroom and ground floor shower room together with a relaxing landing space with built in bookcase.

The ground floor has no less than three reception rooms including a conservatory that leads into a lovely seating area, a comfortable sitting room complete with fireplace and separate dining room. The kitchen is fitted with a range of cabinets and drawers and complete with an oil fired Aga, dishwasher and fridge. Additionally, there is a utility/boot room with a stable door leading to the garden.

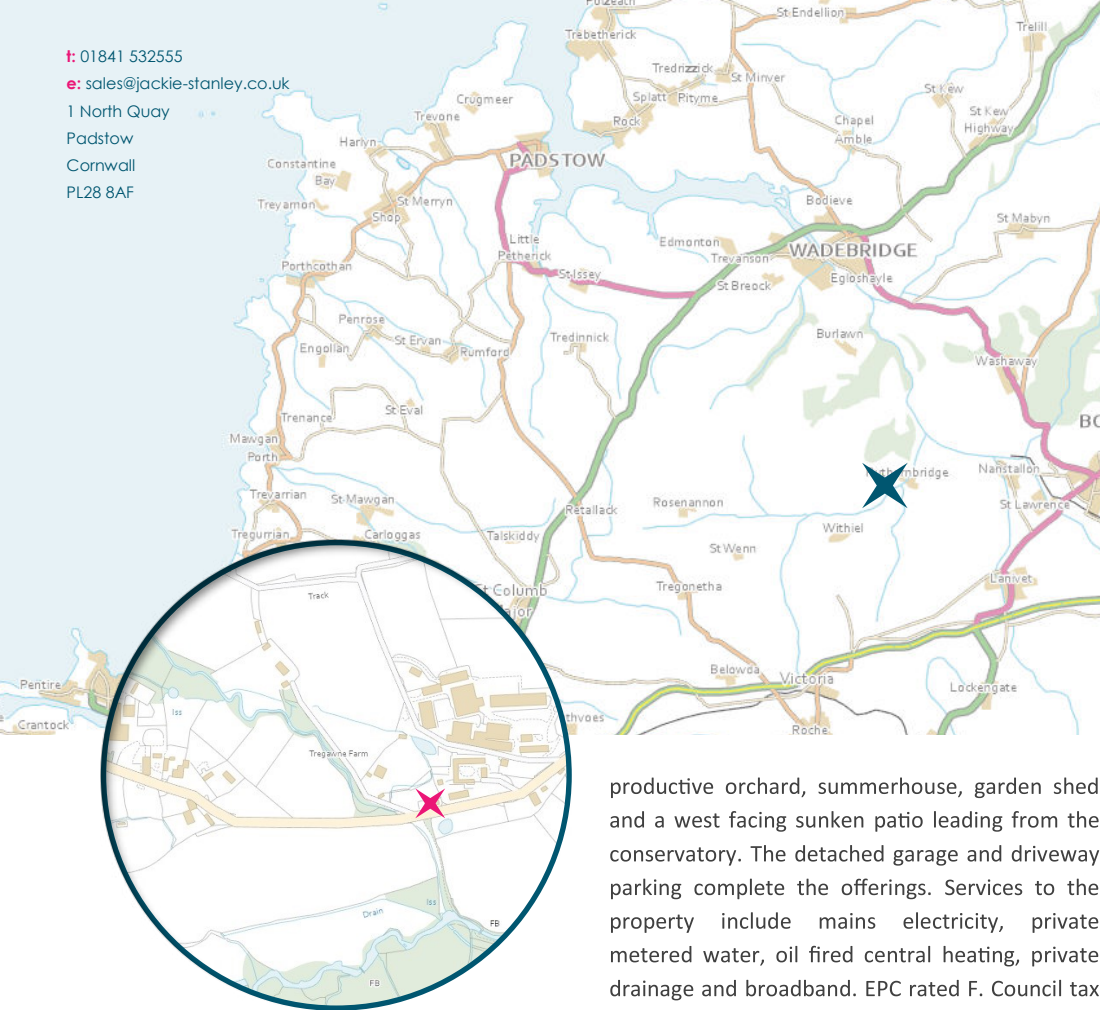

Brooklands has a gorgeous mature garden extending to approximately 0.45 acres with a huge swathe of lawn stretching across the rear and side of the property. There is a
