30 Church Street is located in the desirable old town area of Padstow just moments from the hustle and bustle of this vibrant town and working harbour. This traditional ground floor apartment is quietly situated on highly sought after Church Street, providing characterful and comfortable accommodation with a delightful covered courtyard.

30 Church Street has some really appealing features including sash windows, bespoke oak kitchen, modern family bathroom, quarry tiled floor, Jo Downs feature glazing, solid oak internal doors and bespoke made fitted shutters.

The accommodation comprises a handy entrance vestibule which precedes a large open plan living/dining room with front aspect sash window and a combination of quarry tiled floor and wooden floorboards. There is a contemporary pebble effect electric fire and ample space for sofas, dining room table and chairs and occasional furniture.

The kitchen incorporates a range of oak cabinets and drawers to the floor and wall with oak work surfaces and tiled splashback, complete with ceramic sink and space for freestanding appliances. The patio door leads out to the courtyard garden at the rear. This is decked with a cladded ceiling, outdoor lighting and exposed stone walls, a fantastic private space to relax whatever the weather!

There are two double bedrooms, one of which is a good size with rear aspect windows while the other is slightly smaller with a front aspect window. The family bathroom is generous in size, fully tiled with a crisp white suite. Services to the property includes mains water, electricity and drainage with fibre optic broadband. EPC rating E. Council tax band B.
