Located in a fantastic rural and picturesque spot just one third of a mile from the eastern bank of the River Fowey is this three bedroom detached bungalow with large gardens, a 2.5 acre meadow and separate barn with planning permission for a three bedroom conversion.

Kayes Parc has been in the same family since construction in 1968 and provides a rare and unique opportunity in the marketplace.

The accommodation briefly comprises two reception rooms, three double bedrooms, one main bathroom, kitchen, separate utility room, detached garage and garden store. In all, the property requires a scheme of modernisation or alternatively complete redevelopment.

The property is surrounded by generous gardens and the 2.5 acre paddock, with its gently sloping pasture and separate highway access, adjoins.

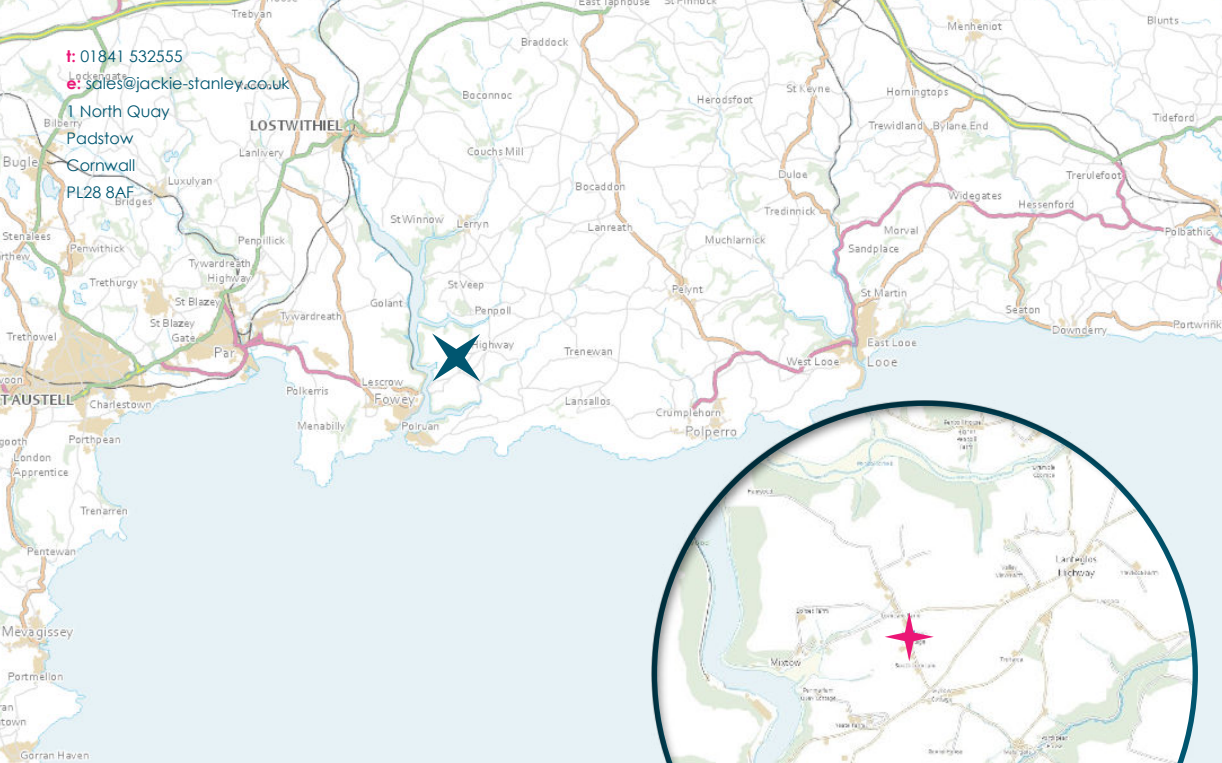

Services to the property include mains water and electricity, private drainage and oil fired central heating. EPC rating E. Council tax band D. Ofcom suggest superfast broadband availability. Ofcom suggest 5G mobile connectivity.

Within 100 yards is a sheltered 0.6 acre plot with a stone and cob barn and granted planning permission for conversion into a three bedroom dwelling together with the construction of a garage. A material start was made in 2021 and therefore permission is now in perpetuity. All planning documents can be viewed using application number PA17/04987.
