Sat in a most enviable frontline position overlooking the Camel Estuary within the highly sought after, historic and picturesque fishing village of Padstow is Halyards, a frontline waterside home of substantial proportions boasting a magnificent backdrop with striking 180 degree panoramic views across the Camel Estuary to Rock, Porthilly beach and Daymer Bay.

Halyards, also known as 39 Treverbyn Road, is a recently remodelled five bedroom detached residence with 2,845 square feet of modern accommodation centred around panoramic outlook over the Camel Estuary.

Noteworthy features include a ground source heating system with RHI payments, an internal domestic lift to the first floor, double glazed aluminium windows and doors, two sets of large sliding bi-folding doors, a beautiful shaker style kitchen with fully integrated appliances and Quartz work surfaces and three stylish modern bathrooms.

The generous accommodation is arranged with a large inviting entrance hall complete with oak staircase, stylish shower room, with underfloor heating and the aforementioned domestic lift.

The lounge is generous in size with large sliding bi-folding doors framing the spectacular views across the estuary and ample space for sofas and occasional furniture. Step through in the open-plan kitchen/dining/sitting area with a comprehensive range of shaker style cabinets and drawers complete with central island, Quartz work surfaces and fully integrated appliances. Natural light passes through the room from front to back and, stunning Estuary views are framed perfectly. The ground floor is complete with an extensive utility room, fully plumbed study/ studio/office/workroom with opening French doors and views across the Estuary.

Up on the first floor are five bedrooms, the principal bedroom having an impressive en-suite shower room and private balcony that provides breathtaking far reaching views across the Estuary. There is also a further family bathroom and second balcony. There is further lit and boarded storage within the eaves of the property.

Halyards has the huge advantage of 2 driveways, for approximately six vehicles with an integral double garage, with electric doors and EV charger. One can drive through to Steal away some quiet time in the large enclosed garden with a swathe of lawn and extensive raised patio immediately accessible from both the living room and kitchen/dining area. Spectacular uninterrupted views across the Camel Estuary can be enjoyed from all angles of the garden. To the left, steps descend down to a graveled seating area whilst to the right hand side is a newly laid bonded resin turning and parking area.

An aerial photograph of a coastal town. In the foreground, a row of modern, two-story houses with white walls and dark grey roofs is visible. A black car is parked on the street to the left, and a silver car is parked in a driveway to the right. The houses are situated along a road that runs parallel to a harbor. In the background, the harbor is filled with several sailboats and a few small boats. The water is a deep blue, and the sky is a clear, light blue. The text "Boasting a stunning backdrop with exquisite panoramic views across the Camel Estuary to Rock" is written in a cursive font across the middle of the image.

The historic and picturesque fishing town of Padstow is located on the North Coast of Cornwall and offers an extensive range of cafes, public houses and restaurants, none more so than Paul Ainsworth's Michelin starred No.6, cool seafood bar Prawn On The Lawn and of course Rick Steins esteemed Seafood restaurant. An area of outstanding natural beauty, there are several sandy beaches within 2 to 4 miles as well as the championship golf course at Trevose. The town also has a supermarket and excellent Primary School. For more extensive shopping facilities, the thriving market town of Wadebridge is just 7 miles distant and offers a fine selection of shops and amenities including a sports centre, cinema, a primary and secondary school and a selection of supermarkets. The nearest mainline station is Bodmin Parkway which is approximately 20 miles distant with the nearest airport at Newquay approximately 14 miles away.

To find Halyards, drive towards Padstow on the A389. As you approach Padstow, turn right at signs for the town centre and follow the road down the hill. Just after the road bears right, turn right into Dennis Road. Within 100 yards, turn left onto Treverbyn Road and follow the road down and round to the right. Continue along Treverbyn Road all the way towards the end. Halyards (number 39) is the second to last property on the left hand side. The postcode for satellite navigation is PL28 8DN.
