Buttercup is a highly contemporary detached residence is nestled in a picturesque and enchanting wooded valley with river frontage and immediate access to the famous Camel Trail.

With it's 14th Century medieval bridge over the river Camel, the hamlet of Hellandbridge is certainly steeped in history and provides the perfect blend of tranquility and adventure.

Buttercup is one of eight modern houses within a unique and select gated development called Riverside, completed in 2021.

The contemporary design of Buttercup boasts large aluminum windows and doors, a low maintenance horizontal weatherboard façade and natural slate roof. The luxurious interior includes an open plan living space complete with a sleek modern kitchen, stone work surfaces and integrated appliances.

The living space has a tranquility with its soft neutral colour palette and doors leading to the large swathe of composite decking and outlook across the beautiful communal grounds. The ground floor is complete with a beautiful double bedroom with built in wardrobes and stylish family bathroom.

Up on the first floor are two beautifully appointed double bedrooms, both with high vaulted ceilings, designer wallpaper, built in wardrobes and stylish en-suite shower rooms. The master bedroom benefits from a private balcony to take in the rural bliss and sound of the adjacent river.

Outside is the aforementioned composite decking, perfect for al fresco dining and enjoying the tranquility. The graveled driveway provides off road parking for two vehicles and the matching carport has a secure storage shed to the rear. Access to the development is via an electronically controlled five bar gate with secure keypad and intercom system. The
