Entertainment and lifestyle are elevated with Bluesound professional speakers, smart home automation, WiFi-controlled blinds and Unifi CCTV coverage throughout the house and gardens. A ground floor double bedroom with stylish en-suite shower room, utility room and inviting entrance hall complete the versatile ground floor layout.

The first floor accommodation offers three generously proportioned double bedrooms, each opening to a Juliette balcony and enhanced by expansive high ceilings that create an airy, light-filled atmosphere. The luxurious master suite boasts a walk-in dressing room with extensive bespoke wardrobes and a deluxe en-suite bathroom, designed for indulgence and privacy. A further stylish family bathroom and a large walk-in storage cupboard complete this impressive level, blending practicality with refined design. Services to the property include mains gas, water, electricity and drainage. EPC rating B. Council tax band F. Ultrafast broadband connected. Ofcom indicate 5G mobile coverage.

Located just two miles from the celebrated harbour town of Padstow, Trevone is a sought-after coastal village offering the perfect balance of seaside tranquillity and easy access to fine dining, boutique shopping and year-round events. Whether you stroll the scenic South West Coast Path or take a short drive, Padstow's world-class restaurants, including Rick Stein's Seafood Restaurant and Paul Ainsworth's Number 6, are right on your doorstep.

Trevone itself is home to a Blue Flag sandy beach, popular for family days out, surfing, and safe swimming, with lifeguard cover in summer and a unique natural tidal pool. The dramatic Round Hole sea cavern adds a spectacular geological touch to the landscape. Trevone offers a range of well-loved local amenities that enhance its relaxed, community-focused lifestyle. The highly regarded farm shop provides a fantastic selection of fresh, locally sourced produce, while the surf shop by the beach doubles as a popular café, ideal for coffee or light bites after a swim. The Well Parc Hotel and pub offers drinks and dining with panoramic sea views.
