This beautiful detached farmhouse, situated in the quiet hamlet of Trevarren on the outskirts of historic St Columb Major and the vibrant coastal town of Newquay, is offered to the market for the first time in a generation. Set among individual properties and surrounded by mature gardens, it combines tranquillity with convenient access to nearby amenities and beaches.

The spacious accommodation which exceeds 3,200 square feet includes four generous double bedrooms and a remarkably versatile attached garage and games room annex—an impressive space that could be transformed into independent living accommodation or a separate dwelling, subject to planning. The Old Farmhouse presents an exceptional opportunity for those seeking space, character and future potential.

The farmhouse opens with a welcoming entrance porch, laid with slate flagstones, leading into a bright and airy dining room that connects naturally to the kitchen and lounge. The lounge, featuring a wood-burning stove and twin front-facing windows, provides a cosy and characterful retreat. A rear hallway, filled with natural light, leads to a cloakroom, utility room and a flexible second sitting or dining room. The kitchen blends functionality with rustic charm, offering ample cabinetry, a breakfast bar, and a range-style cooker, while the adjoining utility room provides valuable additional workspace and appliance plumbing. A rear entrance hall links these spaces to a well-appointed shower room.

Upstairs, a long central landing gives access to four comfortable double bedrooms, all enjoying front-facing views across the grounds and hamlet. A family bathroom with bath, WC, and wash hand basin completes the first floor, along with a boiler cupboard housing the LP gas central heating system.

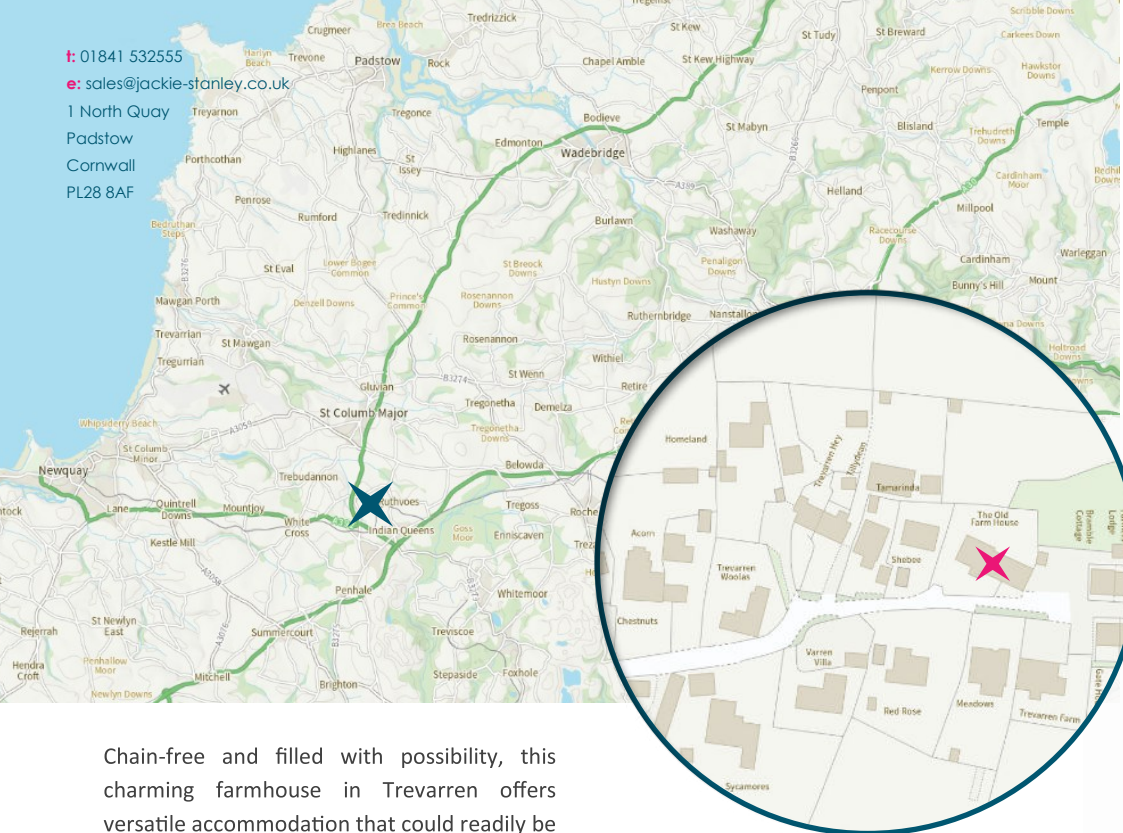

Exceptional potential is offered in the form of the substantial garage complete with store room, inner hall with cloakroom and an impressive first-floor games room illuminated by windows on all sides. This space offers a rare opportunity to create a studio, home office, guest suite or fully self-contained accommodation, subject to the necessary consents.

Outside, a gravel driveway runs alongside the house, providing generous parking with further hardstanding in front of the garage. The gardens to the front and rear are mature and established and create a peaceful, green setting that complements the rural surroundings.
