The village offers an excellent range of everyday amenities, including a grocery store, a Malcolm Barnecutt bakery, a petrol station and garage, two welcoming public houses — one being Rick Stein's Cornish Arms, famed for its great food and local ales — as well as a doctor's surgery, veterinary practice, and a highly regarded primary school.

St Merryn is also a superb base for exploring the celebrated 'Seven Bays' and this spectacular stretch of rugged coastline. The sandy beaches of Trevone and Harlyn are just 1.5 miles away, the latter home to the acclaimed Pig Hotel & Restaurant. Within a 2.5-mile radius lie the beaches of Constantine, Treyarnon, and Porthcothan, along with the historic harbour town of Padstow. A true foodie haven, Padstow offers an array of cafés, pubs, and award-winning restaurants, including Paul Ainsworth's Michelin-starred No.6, the ever-popular Prawn on the Lawn, and Rick Stein's world-renowned Seafood Restaurant.
